 - Late arrival to work and/or early departure from work;
 - Insubordination or failure to adhere to event guidelines and protocols;
 - Misconduct or breach of rules resulting in termination of work and contract, in such case no wages will be paid;
 - Damage event property, items, equipment, and/or reputation, which in such case may require compensation if the wage is insufficient to cover the cost of such damage.

2. Meals and Transportation:

- Meals and transportation are not claimable unless explicitly highlighted and approved by the EO, Woots, and/or Wheee.
- If meals are provided by the EO, Woots, and/or Wheee, it will be communicated beforehand.

- Crew members are responsible for declaring any dietary restrictions or allergies in this agreement form to facilitate meal arrangements.
- Crew members who do not declare any dietary restrictions or allergies will, by default, be provided with Non-Vegetarian & Halal meals.

3. Health and Safety:

- Crew members must adhere to all health and safety guidelines provided by the EO, Woots, and/or Wheee.
- Crew members are responsible for their own health and safety. Any injuries, accidents, or health issues must be reported to Woots and/or Wheee immediately.
- Crew members must declare in this agreement form, and inform Woots and/or Wheee prior to signing this agreement form, of any health or medical condition that requires special attention, or if they are required to take medication during working hours. Woots and/or Wheee will assess the crew member's suitability to perform the assigned event work scope.
- Crew members deemed unfit following the assessment will not be considered for work engagement in the event.
- Crew members who do not declare any health or medical conditions are deemed fit and able to perform their assigned duties.

4. Work Scope and Assignments:

- Crew members may be required to work late nights and early mornings, for extended hours, including prolonged standing, and in exposed weather conditions.
- Crew members may prepare necessary utilities and fuels to support their work performances.
 - e.g. raincoat, hat, handheld fan, medical face mask, extra water and food, energy bar, health supplement, etc.
- Work scope and duty assignments will be communicated in advance, and crew members are expected to confirm their availability promptly.
- Any changes in availability to work must be communicated to Woots and/or Wheee at least three (3) days prior to the event, along with valid reason.
- If availability is changed with less than three (3) days' notice, the crew member is responsible for finding a suitable replacement for their assigned work.

5. Conduct and Responsibilities:

- Crew members are expected to be punctual, professional, and adhere to all event guidelines and protocols.
- Any misconduct or breach of rules will result in immediate termination of this agreement. Such crew members may be blacklisted and such information may be shared with relevant industry parties.
- Any no-show or failure to report for duty without a valid reason may result in blacklisting, and such information may be shared with relevant industry parties.
- Crew members are expected to dress formally as per the event requirement unless a uniform or specific attire is mentioned and/or provided by the EO, Woots, and/or Wheee. Proper grooming and a neat appearance are mandatory.
- Code of Conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - No sitting, drinking, or eating is allowed in the event space while on duty, except at designated resting areas during rest periods or off-duty hours;
 - No sitting or standing on event stock, materials, or equipment;
 - No chit-chat during duty hours;
 - No mobile phone usage during duty hours, except for work-related purposes;
 - No use of earbuds or headphones while on duty;
 - No consumption of alcohol or smoking during working hours;
 - No illegal activities are permitted at any time.

6. Portrait Consent:

- Crew members may appear in photographs, images, videos, and other recordings captured during the course of their engagement for the event.
- By signing this agreement form, crew members grant permission and consent to the EO, Woots, and Wheee to use any photographs, images, videos, and recordings in which they appear for promotional, marketing, and related purposes.

7. Confidentiality:

- Crew members must maintain the confidentiality of all information related to the EO, Woots, Wheee, and clients, both during and after their engagement with the event. Such information includes, but is not limited to:
 - Any incidents occurred, rumors, sensitive information and documents, passwords, financial details, contact details, etc.

- Woots and Wheee shall maintain the confidentiality of crew members' information and use such information solely for internal purposes and for the planning and execution of event/project activities.

8. Information Update:

- Crew members shall ensure that all information provided to Woots and Wheee under this agreement is accurate and up-to-date.
- If any such information becomes inaccurate or changes, crew members shall promptly notify Woots and Wheee in writing within three (3) days of becoming aware of the change.
- Update of information by crew members does not void or terminate this agreement.
- Woots and Wheee shall not be responsible or liable for any mistakes, losses, or consequences resulting from crew members' failure to provide accurate and up-to-date information.
- Should there be any updates or changes to the Terms & Conditions of this agreement, a revised agreement shall be issued to the Crew Member for review and signature. The revised agreement shall take effect upon signing and shall supersede the previous version.
- The current agreement shall remain in effect if the crew members do not sign the revised agreement, and in such case, Woots and/or Wheee reserves the right to terminate the agreement at its sole discretion.

9. Governing Language

This Agreement is drafted and executed in the English language. In the event of any conflict, discrepancy, or inconsistency between the English version and any translation thereof, including Bahasa Malaysia, the English version shall prevail and shall be the sole valid and binding version for all purposes of interpretation, construction, and enforcement.

10. Termination:

This agreement may be terminated by either party by providing the other party with seven (7) days' written notice.
